Explanation of Cell groups

Cells (also can be known as life groups, etc.) are small home groups, with the purpose to grow disciples, to reach out and to multiply.

They are an integral part of the church and its mission

Their values are: All involved, Becoming Disciples, Creating Community, Doing Evangelism and Encountering God (with Jesus at the centre).

Aim: To sustain a healthy, growing, Christ-centred cell organisation, through the power of the Holy Spirit and with the encouragement of church leaders.
